Senator McLaurin, of South Ceroing, is very lil of typhoid fever and his friends are very auxious about Mattack $10 for racing on the public

It is evident that the President's plan of entrency reform by retiring the greenbacks will meet serious opposition in committee. All are agreed that some currency legislation is necessary, ' but it is going to be hard work to frame a bill that will pass

It was hoped that the Kentucky posturasters would be all agreed upon this week. But nothing can be done in that line until the President returns from Canton.

The Hunter faction here are indig nant over the fact that Gov. Hradley, in naming the committee to be present at christening the battleship Kentucky, conflued his choice, as far as Republicans, to those who bolted Ibinter's nomination. "There's notiong so good as congenial company, and few things worse than uncongenial associates, remarked Cupt. J. R. Smith yesterday. "I remainber some when I was young a lot of fellows used to bang around my place that were not the most desirable companions imaginable. Due day a friend, said Do you want to get rid of those fellows?' I said that I did, if I could do it without offending them. He suggested a plan, and the result was I provided myself with an English history, a bible, and several other blocks I don't guess those fellows ever heard of before. The next time they came in 1 began reading idoud to them the books. It wasn't until they began to look at one mother, and finally one said, as they all got up, 'Weli, Jun, we'll drop in again after awhile.' When ever they dropped in I always pulled my hooks, and soon they were afraid in come at all." And when the Captain finished he laughed heartily at the recollection of it.
